Notice to Students

Please make sure you are picking up your trash, especially in the youth room! We have had a lot of plastic bottles and aluminum cans in the trash. Please make sure to put your recyclables in the recycle bins at the end of the hall.

Bowl-a-thon

The Got Hope Bowl-a-thon is coming up! Saturday, February 20th. Pledge sheets can be picked up from Mr. Going. Bowling for Hope is a great way to have fun and earn money for our school. Get a team together and let's have fun.

Graduation

A mailing will be going out next to parents of seniors regarding graduation. But in the meantime, seniors and their families are invited to share their graduation party plans. Sign up is on the white board in the office. This may aid parents in planning their parties around others ó this is an optional sign up.

Sign In / Sign Out

Make sure to sign in and put the reason if you are coming late or leaving early.

Valentines Event

Want to give your friend a Valentine, but don't know what to get them? The Student Council has your solution. Starting next week the Student Council will be selling Valentine ducks and suckers for $2.00 which will be delivered by cupid on Friday, February 12.

Scholarship Opportunity

Students if you are considering becoming a full-time church worker you may be eligible for tuition assistance for both high school and college through the Minnesota South District. Please see Mrs. Bautch in the office for more information.

Lock In

Student Council will be hosting a student lock in from 8 pm on Feb 13th thru 8 am on Feb 14th. Students contact your student council rep for additional details.

Shadowing Day

8th ó 11th grade student interested in attending Hope next year are invited to come spend a morning at Hope. Attend classes and meet the students and staff. Advance registrations are required. Call the school office to reserve a spot. If you know interested students please spread the word.
